

WE LOVE IT

Check it out.

A store where classic pieces mix with modern finds, plus stylish storage.

WHAT ARE YOUR CUSTOMERS CLAMORING FOR?

"The ironstone always sells well, but the diverse, unusual items like 19th-century cake stands seem to fly out the door."

- Andrew Spindler

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE: ANDREW SPINDLER ANTIQUES

You never know what you'll find at this modern-meets-classic antiques store on Boston's North Shore. A longtime collector of ironstone (a store mainstay), Andrew Spindler keeps his offerings fresh with an ever-changing mix of furniture, lighting, accessories, and art. Among his current selections: graphic watercolors (above), hand-painted African shields, neoclassical bronze candlesticks, and Wedgwood coffeepots. ### STORAGE WITH STYLE

These handsome, transportable canvas-and-leather baskets are reminiscent of vintage mail bins. Use them to hold kindling, magazines, knitting supplies, or toys. $155/set of three; Global Views, Inc., 888/956-0030; www.globalviews.com. ©
