

The White Elephant Shop

33 Main St., Essex,
978-768-6901,
whiteelephantshop.com

Rick and Jean Grobe have been running this North Shore institution since 1985. Grobe is often on the road searching through attics, basements, and barns to find eclectic collectibles for his shop.

ANTIQUES

Andrew Spindler Antiques

163 Main St., Essex, spindlerantiques.com

Located in North Shore's antiques mecca, Andrew Spindler-Antiques of Essex sells a mix of mid-century modern along with early American pieces. A lifelong collector, owner Andrew Spindler-Roesle studied literature at Brown and Yale Universities before going on to train at Sotheby's Institute in London. He is an overseer at the Museum of Fine Arts, and has served on the Council for Collections Committee of Historic New England, and on behalf of the Cape Ann Museum in Gloucester.

Andrew Spindler is a prestigious member of the Essex antiques community.